CHICAGO NOVEMBER 25, 1925.

Owing to unseasonable cold weather this year we find ourselves with considerable stock of bulbs on hand. There is still time to plant these and have a beautiful effect in the spring. Cannot you, or your customers, make use of some of the bulbs at the special prices we now offer?

It is difficult to give a definite price on varieties, for they vary according to variety. Send us your check for what you care to spend on bulbs and give us a suggestion of what you would prefer and we assure you that we will be glad to take care of your order.

Shipments will go forward by express, charges collect, unless otherwise specified.
